

February 2018 Owl Class

February is going to be a busy month for the Owl class with two days off in observance of Presidents day, our Valentine parties and 100 Days of pre-school parties.

We will be having a Valentine card exchange. It is best that your child sign their own name and not put each of their friends names individually as that can be a bit overwhelming for them to write.

Reminder

Daddy & Me Pancake Breakfast is coming soon! We ask that no Mommy's or siblings come on your child's special day with their Daddy which will be Saturday March 10th. But moms can volunteer in the kitchen serving. More info to follow....
